

TUDOR PLACE
HISTORIC HOUSE AND GARDEN

Upcoming Programs at Tudor Place July-December, 2011

The following list is provided to inform our neighbors of upcoming activities taking place on the property through December 31, 2011, that are likely to affect on-street parking in the neighborhood. The list is limited to public and private education programs and events likely to involve more than approximately 20 cars or 40 guests. (A complete list of public events and registration links can be viewed at <http://www.tudorplace.org/calendar.html>.)

We welcome your presence on these and other public occasions, and hope the advance notice assists your personal planning.

Should you have concerns about any of our programs or operations, we will make every effort to address them in the following ways: Our Neighborhood Liaison Committee next meets on Thursday, October 13, 2011. Before that, please call Lisa Thompson at 202-965-0400 ext. 100. We value your comments and suggestions and will act immediately on issues of concern.
